

Garden of Memory and Book of Remembrance

The Garden of Memory is available for the interment of the ashes of any Christian. The fee for interment is $500, which helps maintain the Garden in perpetuity. Also included in this fee is an entry in the Book of Remembrance (held in the Lady Chapel at St Andrew's Brighton), which is a permanent record of the interment.

Book of Remembrance

In the Books of Remembrance are recorded the names of those who have been interred in the Garden of Memory. The Books of Remembrance are on display in the Lady Chapel of St Andrew's Brighton. The pages are completed in hand written calligraphy, similar to the style below.

Thank you to Brian Downie for permission to use this reproduction.

An entry of up to 50 words is included in the interment fee.
For more information please see overleaf.

Book of Remembrance

If you choose to have an entry in a Book of Remembrance, the details need to be typed (or legible handwriting) and can include:

- In loving memory of
- name/s
- date/s of birth and death
- family details
- short dedication or keepsake verse
- His/Her ashes are interred in the Garden of Memory of this Church

The charges for an entry into the Book of Remembrance are:

Up to 50 words	Included in interment fee
51–70 words	additional $5.00
71–80 words	additional $10.00
81–90 words	additional $15.00
91–100 words	additional $20.00
101–110 words	additional $25.00
111–120 words	additional $30.00
121–150 words	additional $35.00

A coloured crest or motif can be included on the page for an additional cost.

Please note: The pages in the Book of Remembrance can take several weeks to complete as we prefer to send several entries at a time to the calligrapher. You do not need to have the entry ready at the time of interment.

You are welcome to request a page be displayed to remember a loved one or a family member on a significant day. Please contact the Parish Office, preferably a week or so in advance of the day.
