Parish Giving via ADF

Giving to your church has never been easier!

The Anglican Development Fund (ADF) is pleased to offer Melbourne Anglicans a way of giving that combines electronic banking with the great tradition of weekly offering.

A convenient, committed and caring way to give

Parish Giving via ADF allows you to electronically transfer funds from either your financial institution account, ADF account or your credit card account to your church – you decide how much and how often. There's no need to go to the bank or write a cheque; Parish Giving via ADF not only makes giving more convenient, but enables you to make contributions to the ministry and mission of your church a budget priority. Your parish will benefit too as it plans with confidence for the future, knowing it can rely on your regular support.

How Parish Giving via ADF works for you and your church

To start supporting your church through Parish Giving via ADF, simply fill in the form attached, sign and return to ADF. Contributions can be made weekly, fortnightly or monthly – whatever suits you – and ADF will not charge you or your parish for this service. If your circumstances change at any time, simply contact us by telephone on (03) 9653 4220 or by email on adf@adfmelbourne.org.au to adjust your payment.

Naturally, your contribution is totally confidential, although you may inform your parish to help them with their budgeting. If you have any questions, please email or phone the ADF using the contact details above and we'll be happy to assist.

Giving Certificates

You will receive a book of 50 certificates when you use Parish Giving via ADF. Each Sunday you will be able to place one of these certificates in the offering, as an expression of commitment to your church community.

Direct Debit Request Service Agreement

Our commitment to you

This document outlines our service commitment to you, in respect of the Direct Debit Request arrangements made between Melbourne Anglican Trust Corporation as trustee for the Anglican Development Fund ABN 82 862 724 352 (User ID 187736) and you. It sets out your rights, our commitment to you and your responsibilities to us together with where you should go for assistance.

Initial terms of the arrangements

In terms of the Direct Debit Request arrangements made between us and signed by you, we undertake to debit your nominated account with the agreed amount.

Drawing arrangements

The first drawing under the Direct Debit arrangement will occur on the nominated date.

If any drawing falls due on a non-business day, it will be debited to your account on the next business day following the scheduled drawing date. If you are unsure, you should contact your financial institution.

We will give you at least 14 days notice in writing when changes to the terms of the Direct Debit Request Service Agreement are made.

If you wish to discuss any changes to these terms, please contact us by telephone on 03 9653 4220 during business hours or by email to adf@adfmelbourne.org.au

We will only disclose information we have about you:

Your commitment to us

It is your responsibility to ensure that:

- your nominated account can accept electronic transfers. Direct debiting through the Bulk Electronic Clearing System may not be available on all accounts (your financial institution can confirm this); and

If your drawing is returned or dishonored by your financial institution, we will contact you and depending upon your response, may need to cancel this arrangement. Appropriate action will be taken to recover any transaction fees payable by us in respect of the foregoing.

You are advised to check your account details against a recent statement from your financial institution. If unsure, check with your financial institution before completing the Direct Debit Request.
